TRAINING COURSE

KIATO

GREECE

EMPOWER YOUTH:
CULTIVATING RESILIENCE
FOR YOUTH WORKERS

Description

In our journey as youth workers or youth leaders, we end up a number of times speaking to young people about the importance of resilience and how to be resilient but in a number of cases we do not really understand what resilience is and what does it actually take to be resilient ourselves. This training course will help us to better understand this.

Objectives

- Enhance participants' comprehension of the resilience concept.
- Encourage an exploration of individual life experiences that mold resilience.
- Facilitate active engagement in activities, including group discussions and workshop formats, to uncover and nurture inner passions and resilience, which serve as invaluable assets in their daily lives.
- Transfer the acquired knowledge of resilience principles to the context of working with young individuals.

This training program promises a dynamic blend of interactive and educational methods, ranging from insightful presentations to collaborative group work, hands-on activities, and reflective exercises.

Preparation by Participants:

As a participant it will be needed to prepare the following:

- Reflect on what is youth work for you and who according to your opinion is classified as a youth worker.
- Reflect about your experience as a youth worker and if you have found any difficulties during any workshops or any experiences that you have had with different youth.
- If you had any difficulties, reflect on what the difficulties were and how they were tackled?
- Prepare any questions you might have related to youth work to ask the trainers.
- Prepare some good food and drinks from your countries to present in the intercultural night.

Aim

The aim of this Training Course is to provide valuable support to professionals dedicated to serving the youth community. Throughout this comprehensive training, participants will embark on a transformative journey, delving into their own reservoirs of resilience and personal passions. These newfound insights will not only fortify their own daily lives but also equip them with the skills and inspiration needed to guide and empower young individuals in navigating challenges and evolving into the resilient, accomplished adults who will shape our future generation.

Profile of Participants:

- At least 21 years of age.
- Works as a volunteer in the organization and is working or is planning to work with youth.
- Motivated and excited to learn
- Ready to work in a multicultural team.
- Tolerant, open-minded and abstains from any exclusionary behaviour
- Ready to use the acquired competences after the activity in dissemination and workshops with the young people.
